WC 2018 LOBBY ACTIVISM

Facilitators: Karen Keifer-Boyd, Linda Hoepfner-Poling, Sheri Klein, Wanda B. Knight, and Adetty Pérez de Miles
Friday, March 23rd 10:00-11:00 AM
@ Sheraton Seattle Hotel, Lobby
1400 Sixth Avenue, Seattle, WA 98101

In addition to the NAEA Women's Caucus sessions, meetings, and events that reside within the formal protocol of the NAEA, the Lobby Activism event serves as an informal space for personal as political discussion and action. The Women's Caucus Lobby Activism annual event is held in the lobby of the "headquarters" hotel for the NAEA Convention. Significant aspects of the Lobby session include self-introductions to someone new to you in the group, creative prompts for small group discussion about current issues, and human mic amplification as public performance in the hotel lobby. The "speak-out" affirmation of our beliefs and actions is recorded, transcribed, and posted with photographs online at <http://naeawc.net/lobbysessions.html>

Women's Caucus Regional Artist's Talk

Learn about the feminist, research-based art-making practice of the Seattle-area artist who also served as the 2018 Women's Caucus exhibition juror. Engage in a post-presentation dialogue with him/her/them.

Melissa Higgins-Linder Linda Hoeptner Poling

This year's exhibition juror and session speaker is Seattle artist Vaughn Bell.

We invited Vaughn to consider the 2018 Convention theme of Art + Design = STEAM, resulting in the WC exhibition theme Crossing Borders, Transcending Boundaries. She explains, "This topic invites artistic responses to the idea of border crossing, whether in terms of political borders, personal borders, or the borders between media. How do we cross borders physically, materially, conceptually, or metaphorically? What challenges do we encounter as we attempt to enter into new territory? How can we transcend political, emotional, or disciplinary boundaries? When we do cross these borders, where do we find ourselves?"

2:00 PM - 3:20 PM

Center/Meeting Room 602 & 603/Level 6

Women's Caucus 2018 Art Exhibition Artists Panel
